Situated in Toronto's renowned Bloor-Yorkville neighbourhood is 121 Scollard St. Synonymous with prestige and fashion, this neighbourhood is where the city's affluent call home; where trendsetters make statements; and where visitors of every ilk – from ordinary Canadians to international celebrities – are inescapably drawn. This prime location is revered for its mix of high-end retailers, award-winning restaurants, acclaimed hotels and must have commercial spaces.

121 Scollard is a heritage site, recently converted to house the first international locations for one the most coveted luxury concepts in the world – The Webster. The building is now fully accessible, OBC compliant, and transformative for the neighborhood. 121 Scollard is an architectural masterpiece that cannot be missed when visiting this neighborhood.
