The Brewery District

Edmonton, AB

sf: 284,238

Located at 104th Avenue and 121 Street, just minutes from the downtown core is the Edmonton Brewery District. This development offers an architectural design that is both historical and current in its approach.

With close proximity to MacEwan University and Edmonton's new Ice District, the Edmonton Brewery District will also be within a block of a future LRT line. This mixed-use property is anchored by a 40,000 sf GoodLife Fitness, 40,000 sf MEC, 23,000 sf DSW, 22,000 sf Winners, 13,000 sf Shoppers Drug Mart, and 40,000 sf Loblaw's City Market – the first of its kind in Edmonton.

The Edmonton Brewery District accommodates an urban lifestyle with its unique blend of products and services – all conveniently located within a short distance. Surrounding the Edmonton Brewery District is a diverse population consisting of students, young professionals, empty nesters and seniors. To accommodate the growing population in the area, the Edmonton Brewery District offers a heated and secure 6-acre underground parkade, free for customers' use.
